

MY BROTHER'S KEEPER

CATHOLIC CHARITIES IN ACTION

SUMMARY

My Brother's Keeper (MBK) continues to build upon its rich legacy in being a consistent, safe & supportive presence in the West Baltimore Community. Noted by both community residents & community partners for embodying in both its presence & service delivery, the agency's commitment to its values "To Love, To Serve, To Teach & To Work for Justice," MBK was awarded the prestigious Volunteer Site Award of the Year Citation, by St. Peter's Adult Learning Center. This award is given in appreciation of outstanding services in the community to the citizens and providing workforce training and learning opportunities for adults with special needs in West Baltimore.

MBK, in its commitment to empower and create pathways to career success and assist community residents to self-determine and become improved versions of themselves, hosted a Career Fair in June 2025. The Career Fair drew over 119 people from Baltimore City who sought gainful employment.
